JAZZ CLUB REDUTA

Me in REDUTA...

REDUTA in Me!

JAZZ CLUB REDUTA

When our jazz club was established in 1958 it took its name from an ancient term for a focus of cultural activity. At that time the Czech Republic was repressed by totality and the club, with its jazzy feeling, became an island of free and open-minded community in an ocean of communist bureaucracy.

The best artists in the country perform and jam live to their audience, which makes for a very familiar atmosphere. That is why the Reduta soon became a very popular destination for Czech and even foreign jazz artists.

Names like Stivín, Viklický, Kratochvíl, Déczi, Armstrong, Ellington or Marsalis are inseparably connected to it. Nowadays, the Reduta is still walking its old path, keeping its heritage of classical jazz music, but it has also opened itself up to new trends, fusing jazz with modern, progressive styles. We prepare an interesting and colourful line-up of music every day including holidays, so you just have to choose the right date to visit us and pass a few pleasant hours in company of great musicians and friends. We will also welcome you in our Saxophone bar, situated in the club.
